

RAJPUTANA AGENCY.

CEREMONIAL PAMPHLET.

MOUNT ABU :

Printed at the Rajputana Agency Government Press.

1922.

INDEX.

Serial No.	Name of State or Chiefship.				NUMBER OF GUNS.			Page.
					Permanent.	Personal.	Local salute within the limits of their own territories permanently.
1	Alwar	15	17	19	1
2	Banswara	15	4
3	Bharatpur	17	...	19	6
4	Bikaner	17	19	19	9
5	Bundi	17	12
6	Dholpur	15	17	...	15
7	Dungarpur	15	18
8	Jaipur	17	21	19	20
9	Jaisalmer	15	23
10	Jhalawar	13	25
11	Jodhpur	17	...	19	27
12	Karauli	17	31
13	Khetri	33
14	Kishangarh	15	17	...	35
15	Kotah	17	19	...	37
16	Partabgarh	15	40
17	Shahpura	9	...	42
18	Sikar	44
19	Sirohi	15	17	...	46
20	Tonk	17	19	...	48
21	Udaipur	19	21	21	50

Ceremonials to be observed on the occasion of the Agent to the Governor-General's visit to the Capitals of Indian States in Rajputana.

ALWAR.

Peshwai.—A Principal Sardar and a Raj official will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at the first encampment in Alwar territory, and will remain in attendance until the camp of the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Alwar limits. His Highness the Maharaja, accompanied by the Political Agent, and attended by his Sardars, and Members of Council, will come out a distance of four miles from the city gate to meet the Agent to the Governor-General, and will accompany him to his camp.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General at his camp.

A Guard of Honour will be in attendance.

The usual presentation, consisting of fruits, etc., and Rs. 1,000, will be made by the Vakil at the Agent to the Governor-General's tents. The latter will be touched and remitted.

On the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General by train, two Sardars will wait on the Agent to the Governor-General at the last station* before reaching Alwar.

Rajgarh—when travelling from Bandikui side. A salute of 13 guns is fired on the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General's train at Rajgarh. The Vakil accompanies the Agent to the Governor-General in the same train from Bandikui.*

The Agent to the Governor-General will be met at the Alwar Railway Station by His Highness the Maharaja and the Political Agent, who will accompany him to the camp. A salute of 13 guns is fired on the arrival of the train at the Alwar Railway Station.

A Guard of Honour will be in attendance at the Railway Station, as well as at Agent to the Governor-General's camp.

The Agent to the Governor-General will be attended by his staff and escorted by a detachment of the cavalry escort.

Visit of the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness the Maharaja.

The Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by a cavalry detachment, and attended by his staff, and by the Political Agent, will visit His Highness the Maharaja at the Palace.

The Agent to the Governor-General will be accompanied from his tents by two Sardars and the Vakil in attendance.

On alighting from his sowari, the Agent to the Governor-General will be received by two principal Sardars at the door of the Palace called "Khas Deorhi," and they will accompany him as far as the door of the Audience Hall, where the Agent to the Governor-General will be met by the Maharaja, who will conduct him to a seat on His Highness' right; the Agent to the Governor-General's staff occupying seats also on the right, and the Political Agent and the Sardars on the left of His Highness.

The Maharaja will give Atar and Pan to the Agent to the Governor-General, the Political Agent and the Officers of the Agent to the Governor-General's staff. The Agent to the Governor-General, on departure, will be conducted by the Maharaja to the door of the Audience Hall, by the Tazimi Sardars to his carriage, and by the Sardars and Vakil in attendance to his camp.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival and departure.

A Guard of Honour of Darbar troops will be drawn up in front of the Palace, and will present arms as the Agent to the Governor-General passes.

Return visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by His Highness the Maharaja.

An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, accompanied by the Vakil, and escorted by four sowars will meet the Maharaja outside the city gate (Lal Darwaza), or outside the Gate of Moti Dungari garden, and escorted His Highness to the Agent to the Governor-General's camp.

The Political Agent or the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General will meet His Highness as he alights from his sowari

The Agent to the Governor-General will receive the Maharaja at the edge of the carpet, and will conduct him to a seat on his right.

The Agent to the Governor-General's staff will sit to the Agent to the Governor-General's left, and the Political Agent, and the Sardars and the Members of Council to the right of His Highness.

The Agent to the Governor-General will present Atar and Pan to the Maharaja, and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Tazimi Sardars, and the Members of the Council.

The Maharaja, on departure, will be escorted by the Agent to the Governor-General to the edge of the carpet, and by the Political Agent and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to his carriage.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up in front of the Darbar Tent.

A salute of 17 guns will be fired on His Highness' arrival and departure.

On the Agent to the Governor-General's departure by rail, the Maharaja will accompany him to the Railway Station.

The usual salute will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Alwar.

BANSWARA.

Peshwai—A Motamid on the part of the Banswara Darbar will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at the first encampment in Banswara territory, and will remain in attendance until the Camp of the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Banswara limits. His Highness the Maharawal will come out a distance of three miles from the capital to meet the Agent to the Governor-General, and will accompany him to his tents.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General at his camp.

Visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by His Highness the Maharawal.

An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, accompanied by the Raj Vakil, will proceed to a distance of 200 paces from the tents to receive His Highness. The Political Agent will receive His Highness on alighting from his sowari, and conduct him to the reception tent, where he will be received by the Agent to the Governor-General at the edge of the carpet, and conducted to a seat on his right. The Agent to the Governor-General's staff and the Political Agent will sit to the left of the Agent to the Governor-General, and the Sardars to the right of His Highness.

The Agent to the Governor-General will give Atar and Pan to the Maharawal and to his sons who may be present, and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Tazimi Sardars.

On departure, the Agent to the Governor-General will accompany the Chief to the edge of the carpet, and the Political Agent to His Highness' sowari.

A Guard of Honour will be in attendance, and will present arms as His Highness passes.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness' arrival and departure.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharawal by the Agent to the Governor-General.

The Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by a cavalry detachment, and accompanied by his staff, the Political Agent, the Kamdar or Chief official of the State, and the Vakil, will pay a return visit to the Maharawal at the Palace.

His Highness will meet the Agent to the Governor-General at the door of the Palace Gate, and conduct him to a seat on his right; the staff of the Agent to the Governor-General and the Political Agent occupying seats also on the right, and the Sardars on the left of His Highness.

At parting, Atar and Pan will be given by His Highness to the Agent to the Governor-General, and to the other British Officers present. The ceremonies attending the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated on his departure.

A Guard of Honour of Raj troops will present arms as the Agent to the Governor-General passes.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival and departure from the Palace.

The usual salute will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Banswara.

BHARATPUR.

Peshwai.—Two principal Sardars of the State will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at the first encampment in Bharatpur territory, and will remain in attendance until the camp of the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Bharatpur limits.

His Highness the Maharaja, accompanied by the Political Agent, and attended by his Sardars, and Members of Council, will come out a distance of three miles from the city to meet the Agent to the Governor-General, and will accompany him to his camp where the Maharaja will alight, afterwards proceeding to the Palace.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General at his camp.

The usual presentation, consisting of fruits, etc., and Rs 2,000 will be made by the Vakil at the Agent to the Governor-General's tents. The latter will be touched and remitted.

On the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General by train, two Sardars will wait on the Agent to the Governor-General at the last station before reaching Bharatpur. The Agent to the Governor-General will be met at the Bharatpur Railway station by His Highness the Maharaja and the Political Agent, who will accompany him to the camp.

A Guard of Honour will be in attendance at the Railway station, as well as at the Agent to the Governor-General's camp.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired when His Highness meets the Agent to the Governor-General at the Railway station, and a similar salute will be fired when the Agent to the Governor-General arrives at his camp.

The Agent to the Governor-General will be attended by his staff, and escorted by a detachment of cavalry.

Visit to the Maharaja of Bharatpur by the Agent to the Governor-General.

The Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by a cavalry detachment, and attended by his staff, and by the Political Agent, will visit His Highness the Maharaja at the Palace.

The Agent to the Governor-General will be accompanied from his tents by two Sardars, and the Vakil in attendance.

On alighting from his sowari, the Agent to the Governor-General will be received by two principal Sardars, who will accompany him as far as the door of the Audience Hall, where he will be received by his Highness, who will conduct him to a seat on his right hand; the staff of the Agent to the Governor-General occupying seats also on the right, and the Political Agent and Sardars of the State on the left of His Highness.

The Agent to the Governor-General receives the Nazars sitting.*

After a short interval for conversation, the Sardars will present Nazars* to the Agent to the Governor-General. The Political Agent or the Raj Vakil will name each Sardar as he comes up. The Nazars will be touched and remitted as usual.

The Maharaja will give Atar and Pan to the Agent to the Governor-General, and the other British Officers present.

The Maharaja and his Sardars will accompany the Agent to the Governor-General to the places where they met him, i e., the Maharaja will go to the door of the Audience Hall, two principal Sardars up to the entrance to the Palace, and two Sardars and the Vakil in attendance to the Agent to the Governor-General's camp.

A Guard of Honour of State Troops will be drawn up in front of the Palace, and will present arms as the Agent to the Governor-General passes.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival and departure.

Return visit by His Highness the Maharaja to the Agent to the Governor-General.

An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by four sowars, and accompanied by a Motamid and the Vakil in attendance, will proceed to the Muttra Gate to receive His Highness. The Political Agent or the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General will meet His Highness as he alights from his sowari, and the Agent to the Governor-General will receive His Highness at the edge of the carpet and conduct him to a seat on his right hand. The Agent to the Governor-General's staff will sit to the Agent to the Governor-General's left and the Political Agent, the Maharaj Kunwar and Sardars to the right of His Highness. The Agent to the Governor-General will give Atar and Pan to the Maharaja and to the Maharaj Kunwar and the Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Sardars entitled to the honour.

On departure, the Agent to the Governor-General will accompany the Chief to the edge of the carpet, and the Political Agent or the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General to his carriage.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up in front of the Darbar tent.

A salute of 19 guns will be fired on His Highness' arrival and departure.

On the Agent to the Governor-General's departure by rail, the Maharaja will accompany the Agent to the Governor-General to the Railway station.

The usual salute will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Bharatpur.

BIKANER.

Peshwai.—A Motamid on the part of the Bikaner Darbar, and two Thakurs of the State will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General on the border, and they will remain in attendance until the camp of the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Bikaner limits.

Two Members of Council will proceed two stages from Bikaner to receive the Agent to the Governor-General. Atar and Pan will be given them by an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General on their first interview with the Agent to the Governor-General.

On the Agent to the Governor-General's approaching the capital, he will be received by the Members of Council at a distance of three miles from the Palace.

The Agent to the Governor-General will be attended by his staff and a cavalry escort. His Highness the Maharaja will meet the Agent to the Governor-General about two miles from the Palace, and will accompany him as far as the point (near the Alak Sagar well) where the road turns off to the Fort.

Two Members of Council and the Vakil in attendance will accompany the Agent to the Governor-General to his camp.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General.

Visit of the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness the Maharaja.

The Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by a cavalry detachment, and attended by his staff, will visit His Highness the Maharaja at the Palace.

Three Tazimi Sardars will be in waiting at the camp of the Agent to the Governor-General to escort him to the Palace.

The senior Member of the Council, or a Principal Tazimi Sardar will receive the Agent to the Governor-General on alighting from his sowari, and will accompany him to the top of the steps leading into the Palace, where the Agent to the Governor-General will be received by His Highness the Maharaja.

The Agent to the Governor-General and staff will occupy seats on the right of the Maharaja; and the Members of the Council, and the Sardars on the left of the Maharaja.

Atar and Pan will be given by His Highness to the Agent to the Governor-General, and the Officers of the Agent to the Governor-General's staff.

The ceremonies attending the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated on his departure.

A Guard of Honour of Raj troops, drawn up at the Palace, will present arms as the Agent to the Governor-General passes.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival and departure. On the return of the Agent to the Governor-General from the Palace, the usual presentation, consisting of fruits, etc., and Rs 2.000, will be made. The latter to be touched and remitted.

Return visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by His Highness the Maharaja.

An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by four Sowars and accompanied by a Motamid, and the Vakil in attendance, will proceed to the Palace to invite His Highness the Maharaja to the Agent to the Governor-General's presence. The Maharaja will conduct him to a seat, and give him Atar and Pan. His Highness will accompany the Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Agent to the Governor-General's camp.

His Highness will be met by the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General as he alights from his carriage, and by the Agent to the Governor-General at the edge of the carpet in the Shamiana. The Maharaja will sit on the right of the Agent to the Governor-General, and the latter's staff on the left. The Sardars and the Members of Council will be on the right of His Highness.

Atar and Pan will be given by the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness, and by an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Tazimi Sardars and Members of Council.

On the departure of His Highness, the Agent to the Governor-General will accompany him to the edge of the carpet, the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness' sowari, and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to a distance of 50 paces from the Darbar tent.

A Guard of Honour will be present.

A salute of 19 guns will be fired on the arrival and departure of His Highness.

On leaving the capital, the Agent to the Governor-General will pay a final visit to the Maharaja at the Palace, and will be presented with the following Peshkash :—

12 Trays of pieces of cloth.

1 Sword.

1 "Sipur."

1 Katar.

1 Elephant.

All to be remitted.

Two Members of the Regency Council will accompany the Agent to the Governor-General for the first stage out of Bikaner, and will then return after taking leave of the Agent to the Governor-General.

The usual salute will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Bikaner.

BUNDI.

Peshwai.—A Motamid on the part of Bundi will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at the first encampment in Bundi territory, and will remain in attendance until the Agent to the Governor-General's camp leaves Bundi limits.

The Maharao Raja will meet the Agent to the Governor-General on approaching Bundi from the Deoli direction at a spot by the Tank near a Khejra^{} tree in the Chowk of the village of Talabgaon where a carpet will be spread. If entering Bundi from the Kotah direction, the Agent to the Governor-General will alight at a spot,^{} close to the village of Deopura. If approaching Bundi from any other direction, the reception will take place at two miles distance from the city gate.

After the usual salutation, the Agent to the Governor-General will return to his sowari, and proceed to his camp. The Maharao Raja will accompany† him as far as the spot whence the road to the camp separates, and there take leave, proceeding to his Palace.

Two Motamids and the Raj Vakil will escort the Agent to the Governor-General to his tents.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the meeting of His Highness and the Agent to the Governor-General, and again on the arrival of the latter at his tents.

The usual presentation, consisting of 20 trays of fruits, etc., and Rs. 2,000, will be made by the Vakil at the Agent to the Governor-General's tents. The latter will be touched and remitted.

Visit to His Highness the Maharao Raja of Bundi by the Agent to the Governor-General.

The Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by a cavalry detachment, and attended by the Political Agent and the Agent to the Governor-General's staff, will visit His Highness the Maharao Raja at the Palace.

The Agent to the Governor-General will be accompanied by two Bundi Motamids and the Vakil in attendance, who will wait on the Agent to the Governor-General at his tents.

† According to the recent practice the Maharao Raja accompanies the Agent to the Governor-General to his camp driving in the same carriage and there takes leave of him.

^{*} A spot marked by a pillar.

The Agent to the Governor-General will alight inside a court-yard. at a spot close to the stairs leading up to the Palace in which the reception takes place, and will be there met by a Sardar and the Diwan or Kamdar of the State.

A Guard of Honour of Bundi troops will present arms as he alights.

The Maharao Raja will meet the Agent to the Governor-General at the edge of the carpet near the reservoir of water, and conduct him to a seat on his right hand. The Agent to the Governor-General's staff and the Political Agent will sit on his right, and the Sardars on the left of the Maharao Raja.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired as the Agent to the Governor-General takes his seat. At the conclusion of the interview, Atar and Pan will be given to the Agent to the Governor-General, the Political Agent and the Officers of the Agent to the Governor-General's staff by the Maharao Raja.

The ceremonies at reception will be repeated at the Agent to the Governor-General's departure, the Motamids and the Vakil accompanying him to his tents where they will take leave of him.

A Guard of Honour of Bundi Troops will be drawn up in front of the Palace, and will present arms as the Agent to the Governor-General passes.

Return visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by His Highness the Maharao Raja.

An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General will proceed on horse-back, or in a carriage, accompanied by the Vakil, 556* yards from the tents to receive His Highness. A company of infantry and a detachment of cavalry will form a Guard of Honour, and will present arms on His Highness' alighting. The Political Agent or the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General will receive the Maharao Raja at the spot where His Highness dismounts at the reception tent. The Agent to the Governor-General will meet His Highness at the edge of the carpet, and will conduct him to a seat on his right hand. The Maharao Raja's Sardars will sit on His Highness' right, the Political Agent, and the Agent to the Governor-General's staff on the left of the Agent to the Governor-General.

* Place marked by a pillar.

At the conclusion of the interview Atar and Pan will be given to the Maharao Raja and His Highness' brothers by the Agent to the Governor-General, and by an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Tazimi Sardars present.

His Highness the Maharao Raja will be conducted on departure by the Agent to the Governor-General to the edge of the carpet, and by the Political Agent and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness' sowari

A salute of 17 guns will be fired on His Highness' arrival and departure.

The usual salute will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Bundi.

DHOLPUR.

Peshwai.—Two Motamids on the part of the Dholpur Darbar will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at the first encampment in Dholpur territory, and will remain in attendance until the camp of the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Dholpur limits.

His Highness the Maharaj Rana, accompanied by the Political Agent, and attended by his Sardars, will come out a distance of four miles from the capital to meet the Agent to the Governor-General, and will accompany him to his tents, where the Maharaj Rana will alight, afterwards proceeding to the Palace.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General at his camp.

The usual presentation consisting of fruits, etc., and Rs 500 cash will be made by the Raj Vakil at the Agent to the Governor-General's tents. The money will be touched and remitted.

On the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General by train, two Sardars will wait on the Agent to the Governor-General at the last station before reaching Dholpur, and will present Nazars to the Agent to the Governor-General, which will be touched and remitted. The Agent to the Governor-General will be met at the Dholpur Railway station by His Highness the Maharaj Rana and the Political Agent.

As the Agent to the Governor-General alights from the train a salute of 13 guns will be fired.

A Guard of Honour of State troops will be in attendance at the Railway Station, as well as at the Agent to the Governor-General's camp. His Highness will accompany the Agent to the Governor-General to his tents.

Visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by His Highness the Maharaj Rana.

An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, accompanied by the Raj Vakil, will proceed 200 yards from the Shamiana to receive the Maharaj Rana. The Political Agent or the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General will meet His Highness as he alights from his sowari near the Shamiana, and the Agent to the Governor-General will receive the Chief at the edge of the carpet, and conduct him to a seat on his right. The Political Agent and the Sardars of the State will take their seats on the right, and the staff of the Agent to the Governor-General on the left.

After a short interval for conversation, the Sardars will present Nazars* to the Agent to the Governor-General. The Political Agent or Raj Vakil will name each Sardar as he comes up. The Nazars will be touched and remitted.

A Guard of Honour will be in attendance.

Atar and Pan will be given by the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness, and by an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Tazimi Sardars present.

On His Highness' departure, the Agent to the Governor-General will take leave of the Chief at the edge of the carpet, and the Political Agent and the Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General outside the Darbar tent where His Highness mounts his sowari.

A salute of 15 guns† will be fired on His Highness' arrival and departure.

 Which will be received sitting.*

† The present Maharaj Rana is allowed a personal salute of 17 guns.

Return visit by the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness the Maharaj Rana.

The Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by a cavalry detachment, and attended by his staff and by the Political Agent, will pay a return visit to the Maharaj Rana at the Palace. The Agent to the Governor-General will be accompanied from his tents by two Motamids and the Raj Vakil.

On alighting from his sowari at the entrance to the Palace, he will be met by two of the chief Sardars of the State.

The Maharaj Rana will receive the Agent to the Governor-General at the door of the Audience Hall, and conduct him to a seat on his right hand; the staff of the Agent to the Governor-General occupying seats also on the right, and the Political Agent, and the Sardars of the State on the left of His Highness.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired as the Agent to the Governor-General takes his seat.

After the distribution of Atar and Pan by His Highness to the Agent to the Governor-General, the Political Agent and the officers of the Agent to the Governor-General's staff, the Agent to the Governor-General will take his departure, the same ceremonies being observed as at his reception. Two Motamids and the Raj Vakil will escort the Agent to the Governor-General to his tents.

A Guard of Honour of Dholpur troops will be drawn up in front of the Palace, and will present arms as the Agent to the Governor-General passes.

On the Agent to the Governor-General's departure by rail, the Maharaj Rana will accompany the Agent to the Governor-General to the Railway station.

The usual salute will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Dholpur.

DUNGARPUR.

Peshwai—A Motamid on the part of the Dungarpur Darbar will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at the first encampment in Dungarpur territory, and will remain in attendance until the camp of the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Dungarpur limits. His Highness the Maharawal will come out a distance of three miles from the capital to meet the Agent to the Governor-General, and accompany him to the camp. A salute of 13 guns will be fired when the Agent to the Governor-General reaches his tents.

Visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by His Highness the Maharawal of Dungarpur.

An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, accompanied by the Raj Vakil, will proceed to a distance of 200 paces from the tents to receive His Highness. The Political Agent will meet His Highness as he alights from his sowari, and the Agent to the Governor-General at the edge of the carpet. The Agent to the Governor-General will conduct His Highness to a seat on his right. The Agent to the Governor-General's staff and the Political Agent will sit to the left of the Agent to the Governor-General, and the Sardars to the right of His Highness.

The Agent to the Governor-General will give Atar and Pan to the Maharawal and his son, and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Tazimi Sardars. On departure, the Agent to the Governor-General will accompany the Chief to the edge of the carpet, and the Political Agent or the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness' sowari. A Guard of Honour will be in attendance, and will present arms as His Highness passes.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness' arrival and departure.

Return visit to His Highness the Maharawal by the Agent to the Governor-General.

The Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by a cavalry detachment, and attended by his staff, and by the Political Agent, will pay a return visit to the Maharawal at the Palace.

The Agent to the Governor-General will be accompanied from his camp by the Kamdar, or chief official of the State, and the Raj Vakil.

His Highness will meet the Agent to the Governor-General at the door of the Palace Gate, and conduct him to a seat on his right; the staff of the Agent to the Governor-General and the Political Agent occupying seats also on the right and the Sardars on the left of His Highness.

At parting, Atar and Pan will be given by His Highness to the Agent to the Governor-General and to the other British Officers present.

The ceremonies attending the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated on his departure.

A Guard of Honour of Raj troops will be present at the Palace.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival and departure from the Palace.

The usual salute will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Dungarpur.

JAIPUR.

Peshwai—A Motamid on the part of the Jaipur Darbar will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at the first encampment in Jaipur territory, and will remain in attendance until the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Jaipur limits. On the Agent to the Governor-General approaching the capital, His Highness the Maharaja, accompanied by the Resident, and attended by his Sardars, will come out three miles from Jaipur to receive the Agent to the Governor-General, and will drive or ride in company with him as far as the divergence of the road leading to the Palace. Four Tazimi Sardars and the Jaipur Vakil will accompany the Agent to the Governor-General to his camp. The Agent to the Governor-General will be attended by his staff and a cavalry escort.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival at his tents.

The usual presentation, consisting of fruits, etc., and Rs.2,000, will be made by the Vakil at the Agent to the Governor-General's tents. The latter will be touched and remitted.

When the Agent to the Governor-General travels by train, two Sardars and two Musahibs will be deputed to meet the Agent to the Governor-General at the last station before reaching Jaipur.

His Highness the Maharaja, accompanied by four Tazimi Sardars, will be present at the Jaipur Railway Station to receive the Agent to the Governor-General. The Resident and other British Officers at Jaipur will also be in attendance at the station.

A cavalry escort and a Guard of Honour will be in attendance. The usual salute of 13 guns will be fired.

The Agent to the Governor-General and the Resident will enter the Maharaja's carriage and drive as far as the divergence of the road, a little beyond the Church, to the Residency, and there separate; the Agent to the Governor-General proceeding to the Residency, and the Maharaja to the Palace. The four Tazimi Sardars will attend the Agent to the Governor-General to the Residency.

Visit of the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness the Maharaja.

Two of His Highness' Sardars will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General to escort him to the Palace.

The Agent to the Governor-General will proceed with a cavalry escort, accompanied by the Resident and staff. Four Tazimi Sardars will meet the Agent to the Governor-General when he alights from his carriage, and will escort him to the Audience Hall, where he will be received by the Maharaja at the edge of the carpet, and conducted to a seat on His Highness' right hand. The Agent to the Governor-General's staff will sit on the right of the Agent to the Governor-General, and the Resident and Sardars on the left of the Maharaja. At parting Atar and Pan will be given by His Highness to the Agent to the Governor-General, the Resident and the Officers of the Agent to the Governor-General's staff. His Highness will conduct the Agent to the Governor-General to the edge of the carpet, where they will take leave of each other, the four Sardars attending the Agent to the Governor-General to his carriage, and the two Sardars and the Vakil in attendance to the Agent to the Governor-General's camp.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival at, and departure from, the Palace.

A Guard of Honour will be in attendance, and will present arms as the Agent to the Governor-General passes.

Return visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by His Highness the Maharaja.

An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by four Sowars, and accompanied by a Motamid and the Vakil in attendance, will proceed to the Palace to invite His Highness to the Agent to the Governor-General's presence.

Two Motamids will meet the Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General on his alighting at the foot of the steps of the Palace; and in the Audience Hall he will be received by the Maharaja, who will present the Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General with Atar and Pan.

The Agent to the Governor-General, accompanied by the Resident, will drive to within 100 yards of the city gate (Ajmeri Gate) to meet the Maharaja. The Agent to the Governor-General and His Highness will exchange compliments without alighting from their conveyances. The two carriages will proceed parallel to within a short distance of the Residency, as far as the Doolleshwar Temple, when the Agent to the Governor-General and the Resident will go in advance in order to be ready to receive His Highness. On alighting from his carriage His Highness will be met by the Resident or the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General, who will accompany and conduct him to the place of reception, where the Maharaja will be received by the Agent to the Governor-General at the edge of the carpet, and conducted to a seat on his right. The Resident, Sardars and Members of Council will sit on the right of the Maharaja, and the Agent to the Governor-General's staff on the left of the Agent to the Governor-General. Atar and Pan will be given by the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness, and by an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Tazimi Sardars and Members of the Council.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up, and will present arms as His Highness passes.

A salute of 19 guns* will be fired on the Maharaja's arrival and departure.

At the conclusion of the Darbar, the Maharaja will be accompanied by the Agent to the Governor-General to the edge of the carpet, by the Resident or Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness' carriage, and by an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Palace. The Maharaja will present Atar and Pan to the Agent to the Governor-General when he takes leave of His Highness at the Palace.

Before leaving the capital the Agent to the Governor-General will proceed to the Palace to take final leave of the Maharaja, when the following will be presented as Peshcush :—

- 21 Trays of pieces of cloth and ornaments.
 - 1 Elephant.
 - 2 Horses.
- All to be remitted.

On the Agent to the Governor-General's departure by rail, the Maharaja will visit the Agent to the Governor-General at his tents, and four Sardars will accompany him to the Railway Station.

The usual salute will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Jaipur.

*The present Chief is allowed a personal salute of 21 guns.

†The peshcush is now usually presented after the State dinner is over.

JAISALMER.

Peshwai—One principal Sardar, or the Diwan of the State will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at the first encampment in Jaisalmer territory, and will remain in attendance until the Camp of the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Jaisalmer limits. The Sardar or Diwan will be presented with Atar and Pan by an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, on the occasion of his first interview with the Agent to the Governor-General.

His Highness the Maharawal will come out a distance of three miles from the capital to meet the Agent to the Governor-General, and will accompany him to his camp.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General at his camp.

The usual presentation of fruits, etc., will be made by the Vakil.

Visit to His Highness the Maharawal by the Agent to the Governor-General.

The Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by a cavalry detachment, and attended by his staff (and by the Resident, Western Rajputana States, if present), will visit His Highness the Maharawal at the Palace. The Agent to the Governor-General will be accompanied from his tents by a Motamid and the Vakil in attendance. At the City gate he will be met by a principal Sardar of the State.

The Maharawal will come as far as the "Hawa Pole Darwaza" to meet the Agent to the Governor-General, and will accompany him to the Audience Hall, where he will be conducted to a seat on the right of His Highness; the staff of the Agent to the Governor-General occupying seats also on the right, and the Resident and Sardars on the left of His Highness.

At parting Atar and Pan will be given by His Highness to the Agent to the Governor-General and to the other British Officers present. The ceremonies at reception will be repeated on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure, except that His Highness will not accompany the Agent to the Governor-General further than the door of the Audience Hall.

A Guard of Honour of the Raj troops will be drawn up in front of the Palace, and will present arms as the Agent to the Governor-General passes.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival and departure from the Palace.

Return visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by His Highness the Maharawal.

An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, accompanied by the Raj Vakil, will proceed to a distance of 250 paces from the tents to meet His Highness. The Resident, or the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General will receive His Highness as he alights from his sowari, and the Agent to the Governor-General will meet the Maharawal at the edge of the carpet, and conduct him to a seat on his right. The Agent to the Governor-General's staff will sit to the left of the Agent to the Governor-General, and the Resident and the Sardars to the right of His Highness. The Agent to the Governor-General will give Atar and Pan to the Maharawal and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Sardars.

On departure the Agent to the Governor-General will accompany the Chief to the edge of the carpet, and the Resident and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness' sowari.

A Guard of Honour will be in attendance and will present arms as His Highness passes.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness' arrival and departure.

The usual salute will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Jaisalmer.

JHALAWAR.

Peshwai.—Two Motamids on the part of the Jhalawar Darbar will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at the first encampment in Jhalawar territory, and will remain in attendance until the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Jhalawar limits. When the Agent to the Governor-General is travelling by Dak, the Motamids will wait upon him on the border of the Jhalawar territory and will remain in attendance until the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Jhalawar limits. On the Agent to the Governor-General's approaching the capital, he will be met at a distance of four miles from the city by the Maharaj Rana.

His Highness the Maharaj Rana attended by his Sardars will come out a distance of four miles from the capital to meet the Agent to the Governor-General and will accompany him to his camp; where the Maharaj Rana will alight, afterwards proceeding to the Palace. A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General at his camp, where a Guard of Honour of State troops will be in attendance.

The usual presentation will be made by the Vakil at the Agent to the Governor-General's camp.

Visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by His Highness the Maharaj Rana.

An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, attended by the Vakil or Motamid, will meet His Highness 200 paces from the camp. His Highness will be met by the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General as he alights from his carriage, and by the Agent to the Governor-General at the edge of the carpet, by whom he will be conducted to a seat on his right, the Raj Sardars will sit on the right of the Maharaj Rana, and the staff of the Agent to the Governor-General on the left.

At parting, the Agent to the Governor-General will present Atar and Pan to His Highness, and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Tazimi Sardars. On departure His Highness the Maharaj Rana will be conducted by the Agent to the Governor-General to the edge of the carpet, and by an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to his carriage.

A Guard of Honour will be in attendance and will present arms as His Highness passes.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on His Highness' arrival and departure.

The usual salute will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Jhalrapatan.

Return visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by His Highness the Maharaj Rana.

The Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by a cavalry detachment and attended by his staff, will visit His Highness the Maharaj Rana at the Kothi or Chhaoni Palace as the case may be.

The Diwan and the Vakil in attendance will be in waiting at the Agent to the Governor-General's camp to accompany him to the Kothi or the Palace.

One of the chief Sardars of the State will receive the Agent to the Governor-General as he alights from his carriage.

If the visit takes place at the Kothi, His Highness will meet the Agent to the Governor-General at the top of the steps, at the bottom of which the Agent to the Governor-General alights from his carriage and will conduct him to a seat on his right.

If at the Chhaoni Palace, His Highness will meet the Agent to the Governor-General at the foot of the stair case leading down from the Darbar Hall in the upper story and will conduct him to a seat on his right. The Agent to the Governor-General's staff will occupy seats on the right of the Maharaj Rana, while the Sardars, and officials will sit to the left of His Highness.

At parting, Atar and Pan will be presented by His Highness the Maharaj Rana to the Agent to the Governor-General, and the other British Officers present.

The ceremonies observed at the reception of the Agent to the Governor-General will be repeated on his return, viz., His Highness will conduct the Agent to the Governor-General to the point at which he received him on arrival, the Sardars to his carriage, and the Diwan and the Vakil in attendance to the Agent to the Governor-General's camp.

A Guard of Honour of State troops, drawn up at the ^{Kothi} Palace, will present arms as the Agent to the Governor-General passes.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival and departure.

JODHPUR.

Peshwai—A Motamid on the part of the Marwar Darbar will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at the first encampment in Marwar territory, and will remain in attendance until the Camp of the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Marwar limits. A Darbar Musahib, the Diwan or chief Officer of the State, and two principal Sardars will proceed two stages from Jodhpur to receive the Agent to the Governor-General. On the occasion of their first interview, the Diwan and the principal Sardars will be presented with Atar and Pan by the Agent to the Governor-General, and the Musahib, if not a Tazimi Sardar, by an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General.

On the Agent to the Governor-General's approaching the capital, His Highness the Maharaja, accompanied by the Resident, and attended by his Sardars, will come out a distance of two miles from the city to meet the Agent to the Governor-General. The Agent to the Governor-General and His Highness on meeting will exchange compliments without alighting from their sowari, and will proceed together up to the point where the road turns off to the Palace. The Agent to the Governor-General will be attended by his staff and a cavalry escort.

A Musahib and the Vakil in attendance will accompany the Agent to the Governor-General to his tents.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the meeting of His Highness and the Agent to the Governor-General two miles from the capital, and again on the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General at his tents.

The usual presentation, consisting of fruits, etc., and Rs. 2,000, will be made by the Vakil at the Agent to the Governor-General's tents. The latter will be touched and remitted.

When the Agent to the Governor-General travels by rail, two Sardars and two Musahibs will be deputed to meet him at the Jodhpur Junction Railway Station.

The Maharaja, accompanied by the Resident, and attended by his principal officers, will be present at the Jodhpur Railway Station to receive the Agent to the Governor-General as he alights from the train, and will accompany him as far as the point where the road turns off to the Palace.

The Jodhpur Vakil and a Musahib will attend the Agent to the Governor-General to his camp.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired when the Agent to the Governor-General arrives at his camp.

A Guard of Honour of Raj troops will be in attendance at the Agent to the Governor-General's camp, as well as at the Railway Station.

The Agent to the Governor-General will be attended by his staff, and escorted by a detachment of cavalry.

Visit of the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness the Maharaja.

The Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by a cavalry detachment, and attended by his staff and by the Resident, will visit His Highness the Maharaja at the Palace.

The Agent to the Governor-General will be accompanied from his tents by a Sardar, a Musahib, and the Vakil in attendance. On alighting from his sowari, the Agent to the Governor-General will be met by the Diwan and two Musahibs, who will accompany him as far as the stairs of the "Russora pole" (or, as far as the door of the Audience Hall), where he will be received by His Highness, who will conduct the Agent to the Governor-General to a seat on his right hand. The Agent to the Governor-General's staff and the Resident will sit to the right of the Agent to the Governor-General, and the Maharaj Kunwar, His Highness' brothers, Sardars and Musahibs to the left of the Maharaja.

At parting, Atar and Pan will be presented to the Agent to the Governor-General, and to the other British Officers present by the Maharaja.

The ceremonies attending the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated on his departure.

A Guard of Honour of Raj troops, drawn up at the Palace, will present arms as the Agent to the Governor-General passes.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival and departure from the Palace.

Return visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by His Highness the Maharaja.

An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by four Sowars, and accompanied by a Motamid and the Vakil in attendance, will proceed to the Palace to invite His Highness the Maharaja to the Agent to the Governor-General's presence.

The Maharaja will receive the Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General and conduct him to a seat, and will present him with Atar and Pan. The Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General will accompany the Maharaja to the Agent to the Governor-General's camp.

The Resident will receive His Highness as he alights from his carriage and the Agent to the Governor-General at the edge of the carpet inside the reception room.

On arrival, His Highness will be conducted to a seat on the right of the Agent to the Governor-General. The Agent to the Governor-General's staff and the Resident will sit to the left of the Agent to the Governor-General; and the Maharaj Kunwar, His Highness' brothers, Sardars, and Musahibs to the right of His Highness.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up and present arms as His Highness passes.

A salute of 19 guns will be fired on His Highness' arrival and departure.

At parting, Atar and Pan will be given by the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness, the Maharaj Kunwar, and His Highness' brothers, and by an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the other Indian gentlemen entitled to the honour.

On his departure, the Maharaja will be accompanied by the Agent to the Governor-General outside the Shamiana door, and by the Resident or the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness' carriage.

Before leaving the capital, the Agent to the Governor-General will proceed to the Palace to take final leave of the Maharaja, when the following Peshkash will be presented to the Agent to the Governor-General :—

- 16 Trays of pieces of cloth.
- 1 Tray of ornaments.
- 2 Horses.
- 1 Elephant.

All to be remitted.

On the Agent to the Governor-General's departure by rail, the Maharaja will accompany the Agent to the Governor-General to the Railway Station.

The usual salute to be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Jodhpur.

KARAULI.

Peshwai—A Motamid of the State will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at the first encampment in Karauli territory, and will remain in attendance until the camp of the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Karauli limits. On the occasion of his first interview with the Agent to the Governor-General, the Motamid, if a Tazimi Sardar, will be presented with Atar and Pan by an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General. His Highness the Maharaja, accompanied by the Political Agent, and attended by his Sardars, will come out a distance of three miles from the capital beyond the Bara Khera river to meet the Agent to the Governor-General, and will accompany him to his camp.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General at his camp.

The usual presentation of fruits, etc., will be made by the Vakil. The Agent to the Governor-General will be attended by his staff and escorted by a detachment of cavalry.

Visit of the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness the Maharaja.

The Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by a cavalry detachment, and attended by his staff and by the Political Agent, will visit His Highness the Maharaja at the Palace.

The Agent to the Governor-General will be accompanied from his tents by two principal Sardars. Two more Sardars will meet the Agent to the Governor-General at the entrance to the palace where he alights from his carriage.

The Maharaja will come and meet the Agent to the Governor-General at the gate of the small garden in which the Audience hall is situated, and will conduct him to a seat on the right of His Highness; the staff of the Agent to the Governor-General occupying seats also on the right, and the Political Agent and the Sardars on the left of His Highness.

After a short interval for conversation, the Sardars will present Nazars to the Agent to the Governor-General. The Political Agent or the Raj Vakil will name each Sardar as he comes up. The Nazars will be touched and remitted as usual.

At parting, the Maharaja will give Atar and Pan to the Agent to the Governor-General and other British Officers present. The Maharaja and his Sardars will accompany the Agent to the Governor-General to the places where they met him, i.e., the Maharaja will go to the gate of the garden, two Sardars will go to the entrance of the Palace, and two others will accompany the Agent to the Governor-General to his tents.

A Guard of Honour of Darbar Troops will be drawn up in front of the palace, and will present arms as the Agent to the Governor-General passes.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival and departure.

Return visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by His Highness the Maharaja.

An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by two sowars and accompanied by a Motamid, will proceed to a distance of about one-fourth of a mile from the camp to receive His Highness.

The Political Agent or the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General will meet His Highness as he alights from his sowari at the tents, and the Agent to the Governor-General will receive His Highness at the edge of the carpet, and conduct him to a seat on his right. The Agent to the Governor-General's staff will sit to the Agent to the Governor-General's left, and the Political Agent, and the Sardars to the right of His Highness.

The Agent to the Governor-General will give Atar and Pan to the Maharaja, and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Tazimi Sardars. On departure, the Agent to the Governor-General will accompany the Chief to the edge of the carpet, and the Political Agent and the Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General will see him into his carriage.

A Guard of Honour will be in attendance, and will present arms as His Highness passes.

A salute of 17 guns will be fired on His Highness' arrival and departure.

His Highness the Maharaja will pay a final visit to the Agent to the Governor-General at his camp on his departure from Karauli, when the usual salute will be fired.

KHETRI CHIEFSHIP.

Peshwai.—Two Motamids on the part of Khetri will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at the first encampment in the Chiefship of Khetri, and will remain in attendance until the Agent to the Governor-General's camp leaves Khetri limits.

The Raja will come out two miles to receive the Agent to the Governor-General, and will accompany him to his camp.

A Guard of Honour of Khetri troops will be in attendance.

The usual presentation of fruits, etc., will be made.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General at his camp.

Visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by the Raja of Khetri.

The Raja will pay the Agent to the Governor-General a visit at his tents. An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General will meet the Raja as he alights from his carriage. The Agent to the Governor-General will receive him at the edge of the carpet. The Raja and his Sardars will occupy seats on the right of the Agent to the Governor-General. Before taking their seats the Sardars will present the usual nazar to the Agent to the Governor-General, which will be touched and remitted. .

The Agent to the Governor-General will give Atar and Pan to the Raja, and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to three Sardars.

At parting, the Agent to the Governor-General will accompany the Raja to the edge of the carpet, and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to his sowari.

A Guard of Honour (Infantry) will be in attendance.

Return visit to the Raja by the Agent to the Governor-General.

Two Motamids will attend the Agent to the Governor-General from his camp. The Raja will receive the Agent to the Governor-General outside the door of the Palace. The Agent to the Governor-General and staff will occupy seats on the right of the Raja.

The Raja will give Atar and Pan to the Agent to the Governor-General and his staff.

A Guard of Honour of Khetri troops will be in attendance.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival at, and departure from, the Palace.

The Raja will accompany the Agent to the Governor-General to the place where he received him, and two Motamids will escort him to the camp.

The usual salute will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Khetri.

KISHANGARH.

Peshwai.—A Motamid on the part of the Kishangarh Darbar and the Vakil in attendance on the Agent to the Governor-General will wait on the Agent to the Governor-General at "Nazirji-ki-Baori," distant five miles from the city, and the Diwan, accompanied by one of the principal Sardars, will meet the Agent to the Governor-General 500 paces from the said Baori.

His Highness the Maharaja will come out a distance of three miles from the Palace to receive the Agent to the Governor-General and will accompany him to his camp.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired when the Agent to the Governor-General reaches his tents.

On the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General by train, the Diwan, accompanied by a principal Sardar and the Vakil will meet the Agent to the Governor-General at the last station before reaching Kishangarh. The Agent to the Governor-General will be met at the Kishangarh Railway Station by His Highness the Maharaja, accompanied by the Resident, Jaipur. As the Agent to the Governor-General alights from the train, a salute will be fired.

A Guard of Honour will be in attendance at the Railway station, as well as at the Agent to the Governor-General's camp. His Highness the Maharaja will accompany the Agent to the Governor-General to his camp, whence the Maharaja, after alighting with the Agent to the Governor-General, will take leave and proceed to his Palace.

The usual presentation of fruits will be made by the Vakil.

Visit of the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness the Maharaja.

Two Sardars and the Vakil in attendance will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at his tents, and accompany him to the Palace.

The Agent to the Governor-General will be met in front of the "Suraj Pole" by the Diwan, and at the door of the Audience Hall by His Highness the Maharaja, who will conduct the Agent to the Governor-General to a seat on his right hand; the Resident and the staff of the Agent to the Governor-General occupying seats also on the right; and the Sardars, the Diwan and officials of the State on the left of His Highness.

At the conclusion of the interview Atar and Pan will be presented to the Agent to the Governor-General, the Resident and the Officers of the Agent to the Governor-General's staff by the Maharaja.

The ceremonies observed at the Agent to the Governor-General's reception will be repeated on his return.

A Guard of Honour of Raj troops will be drawn up in front of the Palace, and a salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival and departure.

Return visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by His Highness the Maharaja.

His Highness the Maharaja will visit the Agent to the Governor-General at his camp. An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, accompanied by the Vakil, will go to receive the Maharaja at a distance of 500 yards from the tents. The Resident or the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General will meet His Highness as he alights from his sowari. The Agent to the Governor-General will meet His Highness at the edge of the carpet, and conduct him to a seat on his right; the Sardars, the Diwan and officials of the State sitting on the right of the Chief; and the Resident and the Agent to the Governor-General's staff on the Agent to the Governor-General's left. The Agent to the Governor-General will present Atar and Pan to the Maharaja and the Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Tazimi Sardars and the Diwan.

The ceremonies observed at His Highness' reception will be repeated on his return, with the exception that the Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General will only accompany the Maharaja as far as his sowari.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up in front of the Shamiana to salute His Highness. A salute of 15* guns will be fired on the Maharaja's arrival and departure.

The usual salute will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Kishangarh.

*The pre ३ ३ Maharaja is allowed a personal salute of 17 guns.

KOTAH.

Peshwai.—A Motamid on the part of the Kotah Darbar will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at the first encampment in Kotah territory, and will remain in attendance until the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Kotah limits.

On the Agent to the Governor-General's approaching the capital, a Motamid or the Members of the Council will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at a distance of four miles from the City.

The Agent to the Governor-General will be attended by his staff and a cavalry escort. His Highness the Maharao, accompanied by the Political Agent, will meet the Agent to the Governor-General three miles from the old Palace, or near Ganesh Chabutra. On arriving at the place of meeting, the Agent to the Governor-General will alight, and will be received by His Highness at the edge of the carpet which will be spread for that purpose. The Maharao will accompany* the Agent to the Governor-General as far as the point where the road turns off to the camp.

 According to the recent practice the Maharao accompanies the Agent to the Governor-General to his camp driving in the same carriage and then takes leave of him.*

A Member of the Council and the Raj Vakil will escort the Agent to the Governor-General to his tents.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the meeting of His Highness and the Agent to the Governor-General, and again on the latter's arrival in camp.

The usual presentation, consisting of fruits, etc, and Rs 2,000, will be made by the Vakil at the Agent to the Governor-General's tents. The latter will be touched and remitted.

Visit of the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness the Maharao.

The Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by a cavalry detachment, and attended by his staff and the Political Agent, will visit His Highness the Maharao at the Palace. The Agent to the Governor-General will be accompanied from his tents by two Sardars and the Vakil.

Two Members of the Council, or two Musahibs will receive the Agent to the Governor-General on alighting from his sowari, and will accompany him to the Audience

Hall, where he will be received by the Maharao at the edge of the carpet.

The Agent to the Governor-General and staff will occupy seats on the right of the Maharao, and the Political Agent, the Sardars, the Diwan and officials on the left of His Highness.

A Peshkash,* consisting of one horse, one elephant, and 21 trays, will be presented to, and remitted by, the Agent to the Governor-General.

At parting Atar and Pan will be presented by His Highness the Maharao to the Agent to the Governor-General, the Political Agent, and officers of the Agent to the Governor-General's staff.

The ceremonies observed at the reception of the Agent to the Governor-General will be repeated on his return.

A Guard of Honour of Darbar Troops, drawn up at the Palace, will present arms as the Agent to the Governor-General passes.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival and departure.

Return visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by His Highness the Maharao.

An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, accompanied by two sowars and the Vakil in attendance, will proceed to a distance of 300 paces from the camp to meet His Highness the Maharao.

His Highness will be met by the Political Agent or the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General as he alights from his carriage, and by the Agent to the Governor-General at the edge of the carpet, by whom he will be conducted to a seat on his right, the Political Agent and the Raj Sardars, the Diwan and officials sitting on the right, and the staff of the Agent to the Governor-General on the left. At parting the Agent to the Governor-General will present Atar and Pan to His Highness the Maharao, and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Tazimi Sardars and the Diwan.

On departure His Highness the Maharao will be conducted by the Agent to the Governor-General to the edge of the carpet, and by the Political Agent or the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to his carriage.

 According to the recent practice this Peshkash is presented after the State dinner is over.*

A Guard of Honour will be in attendance, and will present arms as His Highness passes.

The present Maharao is allowed a personal salute of 19 guns.*

A salute of 17 guns* will be fired on His Highness' arrival and departure.

The usual salute will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Kotah.

PARTABGARH.

Peshwai—A Motamid on the part of the Partabgarh Darbar will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at the first encampment* in Partabgarh territory, and will remain in attendance until the camp of the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Partabgarh limits.

His Highness the Maharawat will come out a distance of three miles from the capital to meet the Agent to the Governor-General, and will accompany him to the camp.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General at his camp.

A dali, consisting of fresh and dry fruits and sweetmeats, will be presented on behalf of the Darbar.

Visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by His Highness the Maharawat of Partabgarh.

An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, accompanied by the Raj Vakil, will proceed to a distance of 200 paces from the tents to receive His Highness.

The Political Agent will meet His Highness as he alights, and the Agent to the Governor-General at the edge of the carpet inside the second door of the tent. The Agent to the Governor-General will conduct His Highness to a seat on his right. The Agent to the Governor-General's staff and the Political Agent will sit to the left of the Agent to the Governor-General, and the Sardars to the right of His Highness.

The Agent to the Governor-General will give Atar and Pan to the Maharawat and the Maharaj Kumar, and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Tazimi Sardars and the Kamdar.

On departure, the Agent to the Governor-General will accompany the Chief to the edge of the carpet inside the second door of the tent and the Political Agent to His Highness' sowari.

A Guard of Honour will be in attendance, and will present arms as His Highness passes.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness' arrival and departure.

* (At the Mandsaur Railway station on the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General by train at that station)

Return visit to His Highness the Maharawat of Pârtabgarh by the Agent to the Governor-General.

The Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by a cavalry detachment, accompanied by the Political Agent and attended by his staff and by the Political Agent, will pay a return visit to the Maharawat at the Palace.

The Agent to the Governor-General will be accompanied from his tents by the Kamdar or Chief Official of the State, and the Raj Vakil.

His Highness will meet the Agent to the Governor-General at the entrance of the Audience Hall, and conduct him to a seat on his right; the staff of the Agent to the Governor-General and the Political Agent occupying seats also on the right, and the Sardars on the left of His Highness.

At parting, Atar and Pan will be given by His Highness to the Agent to the Governor-General, the Political Agent and the Officers of the Agent to the Governor-General's staff.

The ceremonies attending the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated on his departure.

A Guard of Honour of Raj troops will present arms as the Agent to the Governor-General passes.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival and departure from the Palace.

The usual salute will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Partabgarh.

SHAHPURA CHIEFSHIP.

Peshwai—A Motamid on the part of the Shahpura Chiefship will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at the first encampment in the Shahpura Estate, and will remain in attendance until the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Shahpura limits.

On the Agent to the Governor-General's approaching Shahpura, he will be met at a distance of three miles from the capital by the Raja Dhiraj, who will escort him to his camp.

A Motamid, and the Vakil in attendance on the Political Agent, will also accompany the Agent to the Governor-General to his tents.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General at his camp.

The usual presentation, consisting of fruits, etc., and Rs 500, will be made by the Vakil at the Agent to the Governor-General's tents. The latter will be touched and remitted.

Visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by the Raja Dhiraj.

An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, attended by the Vakil in attendance on the Political Agent, or a Motamid, will meet the Raja Dhiraj 200 paces from the camp, and accompany him to the Shamiana. The Political Agent or the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General will meet the Raja as he alights from his sowari, and the Agent to the Governor-General will receive the Chief at the edge of the small carpet or "Galicha" on which the Darbar chair is placed, and conduct him to a seat on his right hand.

The Political Agent and the Agent to the Governor-General's staff will sit on the Agent to the Governor-General's left, and on the right of the Raja, will sit his sons, Sardars and officials according to rank.

At parting, the Agent to the Governor-General will give Atar and Pan to the Raja Dhiraj and Rajkunwars and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Tazimi Sardars and Kamdar.

On departure the Agent to the Governor-General will conduct the Raja Dhiraj to the edge of the "Galicha," and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General will accompany him outside the door of the Shamiana.

An infantry Guard of Honour will be present.

A salute of 9 guns will be fired on the Raja Dhiraj's arrival and departure.

Return visit to the Raja Dhiraj by the Agent to the Governor-General.

The Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by a cavalry detachment, and accompanied by the Political Agent and his staff, will return the visit of the Raja Dhiraj.

Two Sardars, and the Vakil in attendance on the Political Agent, or a Motamid, will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at his tents, and conduct him to the Raja's House.

The Raja will meet the Agent to the Governor-General as he alights from his carriage at "Nowchowkee," and conduct him to a seat on his right hand.

On the right of the Agent to the Governor-General will sit the Political Agent and the Agent to the Governor-General's staff, and on the left of the Raja will sit the officials and Sardars of the Raja. The Raja will present a Nazar to the Agent to the Governor-General consisting of 11 trays of jewellery and cloths, one elephant, and two horses, which will be acknowledged and returned. At parting, the Raja will present Atar and Pan to the Agent to the Governor-General, the Political Agent and the Officers of the Agent to the Governor-General's staff. The ceremonies attending the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated on his departure. A Guard of Honour of Shahpura troops will be present.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival and departure.

On the Agent to the Governor-General's leaving Shahpura the usual salute will be fired.

SIKAR CHIEFSHIP.

Peshwai.—A Motamid and a Sardar on the part of Sikar will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at the first encampment in the Chiefship of Sikar, and will remain in attendance until the camp of the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Sikar limits.

The Rao Raja will come out two miles from Sikar to receive the Agent to the Governor-General, and will accompany him to his camp.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General at his camp.

A Guard of Honour of Sikar troops will be in attendance.

The usual presentation of fruits, etc., will be made.

Visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by the Rao Raja.

The Rao Raja will pay the Agent to the Governor-General a visit at his tents. An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General will meet the Rao Raja as he alights from his carriage. The Agent to the Governor-General will receive him at the edge of the carpet.* Before taking seats the Rao Raja will present nachrawal to the Agent to the Governor-General, and the Sardars will present the usual nazar, which will be touched and remitted.

 Edge of the carpet or Dari under the chairs reaching about half way to the door.*

The Rao Raja and his Sardars will occupy seats on the right of the Agent to the Governor-General.

The Agent to the Governor-General will give Atar and Pan to the Rao Raja, and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to three Sardars.

At parting, the Agent to the Governor-General will accompany the Rao Raja to the edge of the carpet, and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to his carriage.

A Guard of Honour (Infantry) will be in attendance.

Return visit to the Rao Raja by the Agent to the Governor-General.

Two Motamids will attend the Agent to the Governor-General from his camp. The Rao Raja will receive the Agent to the Governor-General outside the door of the Palace. The Agent to the Governor-General and staff will occupy seats on the right of the Rao Raja. The Rao Raja will give Atar and Pan to the Agent to the Governor-General and his staff.

A Guard of Honour of Sikar troops will be in attendance. The Rao Raja will accompany the Agent to the Governor-General to the place where he received him, and two Motamids will escort him to the camp.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival at, and departure from, the Palace.

The usual salute will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Sikar.

SIROHI.

Peshwai—Two State officials will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at the first encampment in Sirohi territory, and will remain in attendance until the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Sirohi limits.

A Darbar Musahib, and the Diwan of the State, will proceed five miles from the capital to receive the Agent to the Governor-General. His Highness the Maharao will meet the Agent to the Governor-General about two miles from Sirohi. The Agent to the Governor-General and His Highness will alight from their sowari, and after exchanging compliments will drive together to the Agent to the Governor-General's camp. The Agent to the Governor-General will be attended by his staff and the cavalry escort.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up at the Agent to the Governor-General's camp.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General.

The usual presentation, consisting of fruits, etc., and Rs. 500 will be made by the Raj Wakil at the Agent to the Governor-General's tents. The latter will be touched and remitted.

Visit to His Highness the Maharao by the Agent to the Governor-General.

The Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by a cavalry detachment, and attended by his staff, will visit His Highness at the Palace. The Agent to the Governor-General will be accompanied from his tents by the Raj Wakil and a Musahib. On entering the town, two Sardars will receive the Agent to the Governor-General. His Highness will meet the Agent to the Governor-General as he alights from his sowari at the foot of the steps leading to the Audience Hall, and conduct him to a seat on his right. The Agent to the Governor-General's staff will sit on His Highness' right and Sardars and officials on the left. At parting, Atar and Pan will be presented to the Agent to the Governor-General and to the Officers of the Agent to the Governor-General's staff by His Highness. The ceremonies attending the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated on his departure from the Palace, except that His Highness will take leave of the Agent to the Governor-General at the door of the Palace.

A Guard of Honour drawn up at Palace, will present arms as the Agent to the Governor-General passes.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival at, and departure from, the Palace.

Return visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by His Highness the Maharao

An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, accompanied by the Raj Vakil will meet His Highness 200 paces from the Agent to the Governor-General's Shamiana or the Agency House Building. The Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General will receive His Highness as he alights from his sowari and the Agent to the Governor-General will meet the Maharao at the edge of the carpet, and conduct His Highness to a seat on his right. The Maharao's Sardars, the Diwan and officials will sit on the right and the staff of the Agent to the Governor-General on the left. At parting, the Agent to the Governor-General will present Atar and Pan to His Highness, and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Tazimi Sardars and the Diwan. On departure, His Highness will be conducted by the Agent to the Governor-General to the edge of the carpet and by the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General to his sowari.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up, and will present arms as His Highness passes.

A salute of 15 guns will be fired on His Highness' arrival and departure.

The usual salute will be fired on the Hon'ble the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Sirohi.

NOTE—The Maharaj Kumar of Sirohi if he accompanies the Maharao on His Highness' return visit will have a seat above the Sardars and will be presented with Atar and Pan by the Hon'ble the Agent to the Governor-General.

TONK.

Peshwai.--Two Sahibzadas and two Ahlkars of the State will be deputed on the part of the Tonk Darbar to wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General on the border, and will remain in attendance until the camp of the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Tonk limits.

At the first encampment in Tonk territory, the Agent to the Governor-General will receive a visit from the Sahibzadas, accompanied by the two Ahlkars and the Vakil in attendance. The Agent to the Governor-General will receive them standing, and on departure, the Sahibzadas will be presented with Atar and Pan by an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General.

On approaching the capital two Sahibzadas and two Members of the Council will meet the Agent to the Governor-General at a distance of six miles from the city, and accompany him to his camp.

His Highness the Nawab, accompanied by the Political Agent, will meet the Agent to the Governor-General four miles from the city, and will accompany him till opposite the Fort, whence the Agent to the Governor-General will proceed to his camp, and the Nawab to his Palace.

The Agent to the Governor-General will be attended by his staff and a cavalry escort. A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General in camp.

The usual presentation, consisting of fruits, etc., and Rs 1,000, will be made by the Vakil at the Agent to the Governor-General's tents. The latter will be touched and remitted.

Visit to His Highness the Nawab by the Agent to the Governor-General.

The Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by a cavalry detachment, and attended by his staff and the Political Agent, will visit His Highness the Nawab at the Palace.

Two Sahibzadas and the Tonk Vakil will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at his tents, and escort him to the Palace. His Highness will meet the Agent to the Governor-General at the entrance of the Diwan Khana, and conduct him to a seat on his right; the Agent to the Governor-General's staff sitting on the right, and the Political Agent, the Sahibzadas, and other Indian gentlemen on the left. At parting, Atar and Pan will be presented by His Highness the Nawab to the Agent to the Governor-General and other British Officers present.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the arrival and departure of the Agent to the Governor-General.

A Guard of Honour of Darbar troops will present arms as the Agent to the Governor-General passes. The ceremonies observed at the Agent to the Governor-General's reception will be repeated on his return.

Return visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by His Highness the Nawab.

An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, accompanied by the Vakil in attendance, will meet the Nawab at the Gate of the Fort, and accompany His Highness to the Agent to the Governor-General's camp.

The Political Agent or the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General will meet* the Nawab as His Highness alights from his sowari. The Agent to the Governor-General will receive the Nawab at the edge of the carpet, and conduct His Highness to a seat on his right; the Agent to the Governor-General's staff sitting on the left, and the Political Agent and the Sahibzadas on the right.

At parting, the Agent to the Governor-General will present Atar and Pan to His Highness the Nawab, and Sahibzada Mohamed Ubeid-ullah Khan if present, and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the other Sahibzadas and native gentlemen present entitled to the honour.

A salute of 17 guns† will be fired on the arrival and departure of the Nawab.

On departure His Highness will be conducted by the Agent to the Governor-General to the edge of the carpet, and by the Political Agent, or Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General and an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to his carriage.

A Guard of Honour will be in attendance.

The usual salute will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Tonk.

At a spot 300 yards from the Agent to the Governor-General's camp.*

†The present Nawab is allowed a personal salute of 19 guns.

UDAIPUR.

Peshwai—A Motamid on the part of the Udaipur Darbar will wait upon the Agent to the Governor-General at the first encampment in Mewar territory, and will remain in attendance until the camp of the Agent to the Governor-General leaves Mewar limits.

On the Agent to the Governor-General's approaching the second stage from Udaipur, he will be met at a distance of about two miles from the encampment by one of the principal nobles of the State (e.g., the Rao of Bedla) and the Chief Official of Udaipur, who will, at the first interview, be presented with Atar and Pan by the Agent to the Governor-General.

His Highness the Maharana, accompanied by the Resident, will come out a distance of two miles from Udaipur to receive the Agent to the Governor-General. On arriving at the place of meeting, the Agent to the Governor-General will alight from his sowari, and will be received by the Maharana at the edge of the carpet which will be spread for the purpose. Atar and Pan will be presented by the Maharana to the Agent to the Governor-General and staff, after which the Agent to the Governor-General and His Highness will mount their sowari, and proceed in company for about 300 yards, or as far as the spot whence the roads to His Highness' Palace and the Agent to the Governor-General's camp diverge and there take leave of each other without alighting from their carriages. The Agent to the Governor-General will be attended by his staff and a cavalry escort.

A principal Sardar and the Vakil in attendance will accompany the Agent to the Governor-General to his tents.

A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the arrival of the Agent to the Governor-General at his tents.

The usual presentation, consisting of fruits, etc., and Rs. 2,000 will be made by the Vakil at the Agent to the Governor-General's tents. The latter will be touched and remitted.

When the Agent to the Governor-General travels by train, the Udaipur Vakil and a Motamid, on behalf of the Darbar, wait upon him at Chitorgarh Railway Station where a Guard of Honour is drawn up. A salute is fired on the arrival of the train at, and departure from, Chitor. At Khemli station, a Tazimi Sardar attends on the Hon'ble the Agent to the Governor-General.

NOTE.—When the Hon'ble the Agent to the Governor-General travels by train, His Highness the Maharana will meet the Agent to the Governor-General at the edge of the Parandah in front of the waiting room.

Before departure from the Parandah His Highness the Maharana gives Atar and Pan to the Hon'ble the Agent to the Governor-General and his staff.

¶ Visit of the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness the Maharana.

The Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by a cavalry detachment, and attended by his staff and by the Resident, will visit His Highness the Maharana at the Palace. The Agent to the Governor-General will be accompanied from his tents by two Sardars and the Vakil in attendance. On alighting from his conveyance at the bottom of the steps of the Palace, the Agent to the Governor-General will be met by two Motamids, who will accompany him as far as the "Ganesh Deorhi," where he will be received by two principal Sardars and the Chief Official of the State, and will be conducted by them to the Maharana, by whom he will be met at the edge of the carpet and conducted to a seat on His Highness' right: the Resident and the Agent to the Governor-General's staff sitting to the right of the Agent to the Governor-General, and the Raj Sirdars to the left of the Maharana. At parting, Atar and Pan will be presented to the Agent to Governor-General, the Resident and the Officers of the Agent to the Governor-General's staff present by the Maharana.

The ceremonies attending the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival will be repeated on his departure. A salute of 13 guns will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's arrival and departure.

A Guard of Honour of Raj troops will be present at the Palace.

Return visit to the Agent to the Governor-General by His Highness the Maharana.

His Highness the Maharana will return the visit of the Agent to the Governor-General. An Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General, escorted by four sowars and accompanied by a Motamid and the Vakil in attendance, will proceed to the Palace to invite His Highness to the Agent to the Governor-General's presence. Two Motamids will meet the Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General on his alighting at the foot of the steps of the Palace. In the Audience Hall he will be received by His Highness the Maharana standing, who will present the Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General with Atar and Pan.

The Agent to the Governor-General, accompanied by the Resident, will proceed from the Residency to the "Hawala-ka-Burj" to meet the Maharana. The Agent to the Governor-General and His Highness will exchange compliments without alighting from their conveyances, and the Agent to the Governor-General will drive back to the Residency in advance of His Highness.

The Resident, or the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General, will receive the Maharana on alighting from his sowari, and will conduct him to the Agent to the Governor-General, who will receive His Highness at the edge of the carpet. The Maharana will be seated to the right of the Agent to the Governor-General, the Resident and staff of the Agent to the Governor-General to the latter's left, and the Sardars and Raj Officials to the right of His Highness.

A Guard of Honour will be drawn up and present arms as His Highness passes. A salute of 21 guns will be fired on His Highness' arrival and departure.

At parting, Atar and Pan will be presented to the Maharana and to any first class Sardars who may be present, by the Agent to the Governor-General, and by an Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General to the Sardars of lower rank entitled to the honour.

On the Maharana's departure, the Agent to the Governor-General will accompany His Highness to the edge of the carpet, and the Resident or the Secretary to the Agent to the Governor-General to His Highness' carriage.

Before leaving the capital, the Agent to the Governor-General will proceed to the Palace to take final leave of the Maharana when the following will be presented as Peshkash :—

- 2 Trays of ornaments.
- 9 Trays of cloths.
- 1 Elephant.
- 2 Horses.
- 1 Stick.
- 1 Ankus.

All the above to be remitted except the stick and ankus.

The usual salute will be fired on the Agent to the Governor-General's departure from Udaipur.

NOTE.—This Peshkash is now presented after the State dinner is over.

